

PROCEDURE FOR BURNING PERMIT
PHILLIPS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, MALTA MT

LAW, Section 7-33-2205 M.C.A.

TO BE READ BY THE APPLICANT:

The Board of County Commissioners has established a fire season pursuant to Section 7-33-2205, M.C.A. By this provision of the Montana law, no person may ignite or set any forest fire, slash-burning fire, land clearing fire, debris-burning fire or open fire within Phillips County on forest, range or crop lands without having first obtained a written permit. Violation of this provision constitutes a misdemeanor and is subject to a $500.00 fine and/or six (6) months in the County Jail.

In addition, a person commits the offense of negligent arson if he purposely or knowingly starts a fire whether on his own property or property of another and thereby negligently places another person in danger of death or bodily injury (including any fire fighter responding to or at the scene of the fire) or places property of another in danger of damage or destruction. Where other persons are placed in danger of death or bodily injury, such offense can result in a fine not to exceed $50,000.00 or by imprisonment in the state prison for any term not to exceed ten (10) years, or both.

Further, if applicant's negligence causes such personal injury or property damage, applicant could be civilly liable for such injuries or damages, including suppression of the fire.
